Digital*Edge* Claims

Insurance Technology by Insurance People

Cogitate Digital*Edge* Claims is designed to provide your adjusters and claims professionals with the tools and digital experience to engage and respond with speed, accuracy, and the personalized service each policyholder and claimant deserves.

Our cloud-based microservices architected platform promises scalability, flexibility, and extensibility today and into the future, eliminating concerns of obsolescence. The advanced claims functionality, powerful data analytics, and integration with leading third-party data and solution providers offer enterprise capabilities at a SaaS price. With the efficiencies you gain, you'll reduce claims cycle time and provide the exemplary customer service that defines your commitment to your policyholders at the most critical moments.

Through seamless integration with your policy system, we're not just automating policy and coverage verifications, we're operationalizing your loss data with predictive analytics to enrich underwriting decisions and automate cancellations and non-renewals for flagged risk. It's so rewarding to replace sticky notes and personal reminders with automation and insights! Save time, improve accuracy, remove administrative drag, and focus your team on the claims that need their attention most.

Custom Configuration

Cogitate Digital*Edge* Claims platform is developed with deep functionality, all of which can be tailored to your LOBs and best practices. From your claims portal and FNOL through adjudication, we'll customize the UI for the most lovable user experience. Our Configuration Hub gives you the tools to configure rules, diaries, claims audit, roles and task-level authorizations for the highest level of security. We're happy to help, but you won't need it!

Seamless Integration

Identifying, vetting, and integrating with third-party providers is a significant endeavor for an insurer - which we've undertaken for you. Digital*Edge* Claims is pre-integrated with 20+ data and solution providers to supercharge the claims process.

Integrate with Cogitate's Fraud Network Analysis, which uses AI and ML to identify potentially fraudulent claims, and DemandAssist, designed to eliminate labor-intensive processes utilizing OCR and text mining to comb documents for attorney demands.

Integrate your policy system with Digital*Edge* Claims and transform your loss data into underwriting intelligence using AI and predictive modeling to enrich risk selection.

Unified, Automated Experience

Your adjusters never leave the comfort of Digital*Edge* Claims. We simplified the experience with seamless, automated information exchange with vendors and ecosystem partners, enabling reporting, data verifications, automated workflows, and digital payments all unified within our platform. This enterprise system is designed to remove administrative drag, reduce redundancy and errors, speed cycle times, and accelerate payments.

Digital*Edge* Claims is leveling the playing field, making enterprise claims management capabilities attainable regardless of your tier - with TCO that supports your growth and financial goals. Your technology shouldn't limit you when policyholders need you most.
